This seminar will feature Tim Richardson, J.D. and Dr. Artemus Flagg. Mr. Richardson will be discussing changes in the law regarding personal injury, including comparative fault, no insurance penalties, presumptions, undocumented individuals, collateral source and how to evaluate and/or accept third party claims. He will also be discussing how to protect yourself on the lien issue and what to do when the insurance company denies your claim, how to handle insurance vs. cash pay, how to handle co-pays and deductible on a PI Case, and how to address attorneys who are not paying or will not honor liens.

Dr. Flagg will also be discussing updates on collaborations between chiropractic and interventional pain and spine care. He will discuss the client expectations, client results and ultimate interworking with the automobile and health insurance for the patient.

About the Instructors

Tim Richardson is a dynamic speaker and lawyer located primarily in and around the New Orleans Area. Since 2001 when he graduated from Loyola University School of Law in New Orleans, he has served as Assistant General Counsel for the Louisiana Sheriff's Association, is a commercial business, personal injury, product liability and medical professional liability litigator. Mr. Richardson is licensed in all Louisiana State and Federal District and Appellate Courts.
